

Isn't That Good News?

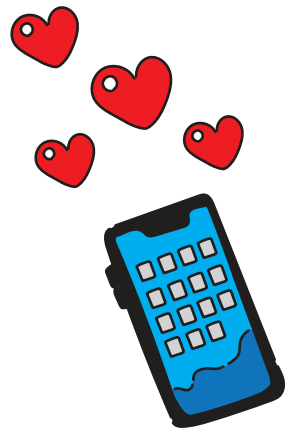

Hi, I'm Marco. Do you ever feel scared? I do sometimes, but then I remember that Jesus is God with us. He's always with me, and I don't need to feel scared. You don't need to feel scared either. Isn't that good news?

And when Jesus came to earth, he came to show us God's love. Jesus showed us God's love by caring for the sick, by feeding the hungry, and by spending time with little kids like you and me. Isn't that good news?

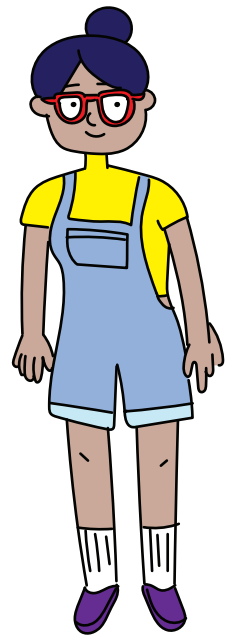

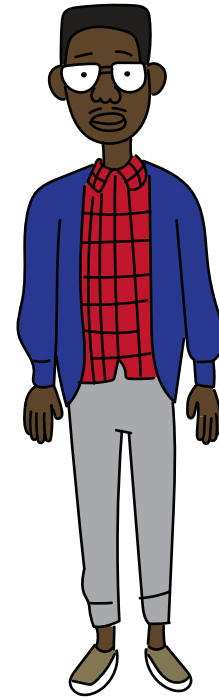

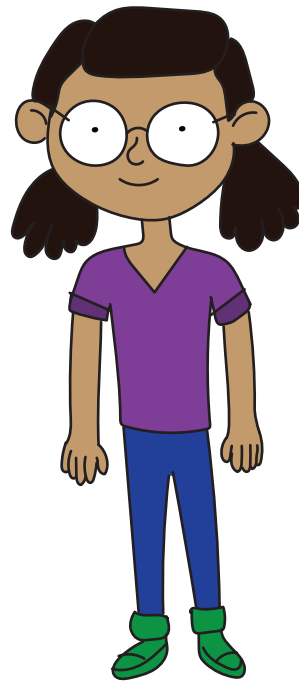

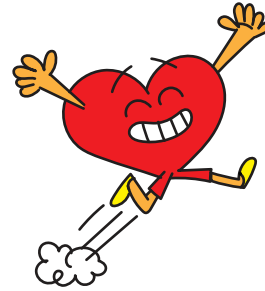

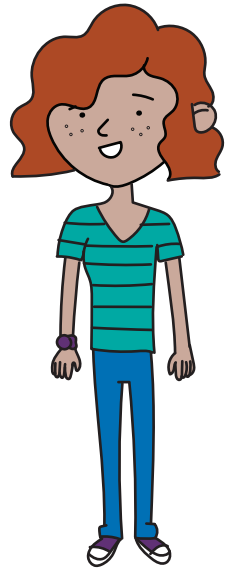

Hi, I'm Erin. I love Jesus and want to be like Jesus, so I show God's love by hugging my friend when she is sad, sharing my toys, and calling my grandma when she is sick. Isn't that good news?

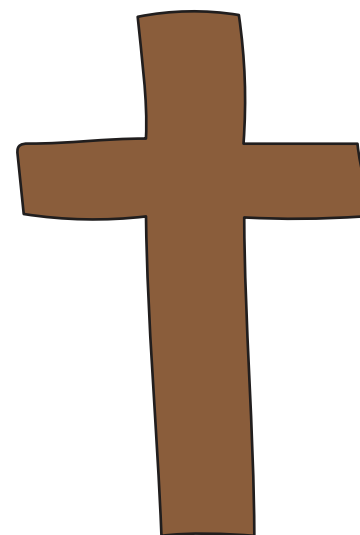

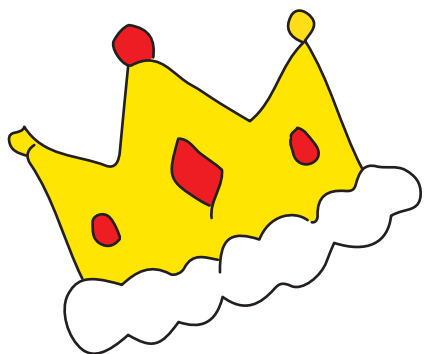

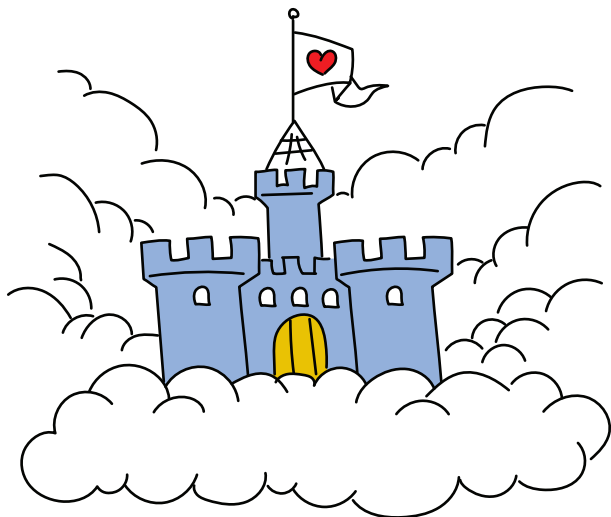

Jesus came to save us from sin. Sin is the crummy stuff that we do sometimes that isn't God's very best for us. You know, it's like when someone says, "Don't do that, it'll hurt," and you do that thing anyway. And it hurts. Sin is like that. It's not good for us and it hurts us when we do it. Jesus came to save us from sin. Isn't that good news?

Hi, I'm Maya. I love Jesus and I love that he came to save me from sin. But he didn't come to save just me —no way—he came to save us all from sin. And so, I get to tell others about Jesus! I can tell my grandpa that Jesus loves him. I can tell my friend that Jesus loves her. I can tell my neighbours that Jesus loves them. Isn't that good news?

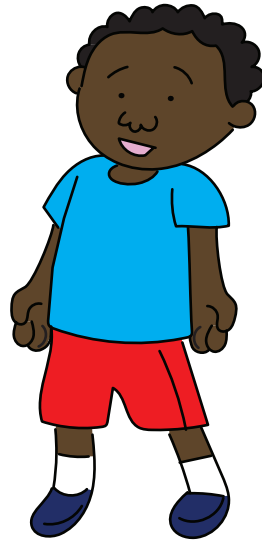

Jesus came to set up God's kingdom. You know what a kingdom is, right? It's a place where a king rules. Everything the king says goes in the kingdom. Yup. And God's kingdom is where he is king. It's what he says that goes. But guess what? Instead of being a grumpy king, God is loving and kind and caring. When Jesus came to earth he talked all about God's kingdom. Isn't that good news?

Hi, I'm Isaac. I love Jesus, he's the Lord of my life. That means that I am a part of God's kingdom.

Wherever I go, I live like I am in God's kingdom. And because God is king, the way to live in his kingdom is treating everyone with love. Loving God and loving others. Those are his rules. Isn't that good news?

Because Jesus is God with us, and he came to show us God's love, save us from sin, and set up God's kingdom.

We can share in God's life together forever. You, me, and God—together. Isn't that good news?
